The applicant filed this application seeking to abandon service. Subsequently, it asked to withdraw the application because it had found a potential buyer for its assets. The sale is still pending.

Therefore, IT IS RULED that the applicant is reminded that it has the obligation to provide service to its customers until the Commission approves the sale, and it is consummated, or the Commission approves discontinuance of the applicant's service. Regardless, it shall make every effort to ensure uninterrupted service to its customers.
